TIP#1_CHOICES A PROGRAMME

So you have pre-selected a programme or a couple of them. It’s time to do more research. This publication was prepared by member of Erasmus Mundus Association based on their own success stories and observations.

TIP#2_APPLICATION

You will use them for adapting your CV and writing motivation letters.

TIP#3_RECOMMENDATION LETTER

Now it’s time to think about who you will ask for recommendations. Make sure you choose people who know you well and who can write a strong letter of recommendation. They could be your academic advisor, supervisor or other people who know you quite well. You might also consider going to the programme representatives. Erasmus Mundus Association (EMA)

TIP#4_CV

You could also mention different areas, which qualities are they looking for in prospective students. Pay extra attention to buzzwords they are using. Make notes along the way.

TIP#5_MOTIVATION/COVER LETTER

Your motivation letter usually has to be tailored specifically for each of them.
Consider this down and come up with examples for all points. It is useful to employ STAR principle when you do (Situation - Task - Action - Result).

TIP#6_INTERVIEW

5. Be sure to tweak the Skype audio ahead of time to make sure you can hear and be heard. Use earphones if possible.

6. Make sure all other windows on your computer are closed (especially if you want to mention);

2. Have talking points in front of you to remind yourself everything you
