3. ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

In order to gain admission to an Engineering Master's degree course the candidate has to satisfy the following set of requirements:

1) Bachelor's degree (D.M. 509/99 or D.M. 270/04), postgraduate Master's degree (legislation previous to D.M. 509/99) or a three-year diploma or other officially recognised study titles awarded abroad;
2) the curricular requirements as set out by academic statutes for admission to Master's degree courses and self-certified by the candidate or verified through an assessment process (see: Evaluation procedures section);
3) adequate personal skills, to be verified during an assessment test (see: Assessment test section);
4) Knowledge of English to be verified as described in the following paragraph (see: Knowledge of English section).

The Faculty of Engineering appoints a Commission for each degree course in order to evaluate candidates' curricula and ascertain their personal background.

PLEASE NOTE: Admission to Master's degrees is also open to students who expect to obtain a recognised certificate and who do not have a debt of more than 30 credits (CFU) (including credits awarded for the final exam). These students, if in possession of the curricular requirements foreseen to access the master's degree course, may provisionally enrol under condition and do not have to apply for the evaluation of their curricular requirements. They will have to prove that they satisfy the course requirements with a self-certification of all exams passed, relevant credit value (CFU), type of learning activity (TAF) and scientific disciplinary sector (SSD) using the form “Attachment no. 2” to this announcement.

The table in “Attachment no.1” outlines different categories of students and relevant procedures to perform in order to enrol (direct ENROLMENT, pre-assessment of curricular requirements, and/or assessment test)

3.1 KNOWLEDGE OF ENGLISH

Candidates must have at least a B1 Common European Framework (CEF) level of English in order to enrol for a Master's degree course in the Faculty of Engineering. This level of knowledge may be proved when enrolling by handing in one of the following certificates:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CERTIFYING BODY</th>
<th>CERTIFICATE CORRESPONDING TO B1 LEVEL</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Cambridge English Language Assessment (Part of the University of Cambridge)</td>
<td>Cambridge English : Preliminary (PET)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cambridge English Language Assessment (Part of the University of Cambridge)</td>
<td>International English Language Testing System (IELTS): minimum score 4.5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cambridge English Language Assessment (Part of the University of Cambridge)</td>
<td>Business Language Testing Service (BULATS) Reading/Language Knowledge Test: minimum score 40</td>
</tr>
<tr>

<td>Test of English as a Foreign Language Internet Based Test (TOEFL iBT): minimum score 57</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Other language certifications will be evaluated by the president of the Faculty together with the English teacher and eventually the Language Centre.

Candidates who do not have one of the certificates mentioned above will need to pass the online Cisia Test (TOLC) that will be held on September 5, 2017 at 14:15 or on September 6, 2017 at 09:15 in the Faculty of Engineering (Via Ferrata 5).

If the available spots for the online Cisia Test (TOLC) are less than the applicants, more sessions will be added in the morning of September 5 and/or in the afternoon of September 6.

REGISTRATION to the test is to be done online directly at CISIA http://www.cisiaonline.it/, where students will be ask to submit to the website first. REGISTRATION to the test costs € 30.00 payable through credit card or bank transfer. You can find further information on CISIA webpage http://www.cisiaonline.it/ or on the Faculty of Engineering webpage http://ingegneria.unipv.it/.

Applicants holding a Bachelor’s degree from the Faculty of Engineering of the University of Pavia are not required to submit any certification, as their B1 knowledge of English had already been assessed during their previous academic career.

Candidates who can prove that they passed either a B1 level test to gain admission to a university course or an English exam worth at least 3 credits in their previous career are not required to take the Cisia test or show one of the previous certificates.

Candidates from foreign universities may certify their knowledge of English by presenting a certificate stating that they passed an English exam or exams of teachings conducted in English.

No certificates are required from students who are citizens of countries where English is one of the official languages and/or those who have been awarded a degree from an institution where teaching is conducted in English; however, these students must hand in supporting documentation when enrolling.

4. CURRICULAR REQUIREMENTS AND EVALUATION PROCEDURE (see table in Attachment no. 1)

Candidates who have to apply for the evaluation of curricular requirements – as outlined in the following section “EVALUATION OF CURRICULAR REQUIREMENTS”:

- graduates from foreign universities or those in possession of a foreign qualification; and/or those who hold a five-year degree or those awarded an Italian three-year diploma (legislation previous to DM 509/99);
- graduates or senior students about to graduate whose degree curriculum includes courses not clearly identified by SSD classification and/or measured in CFU.

(See “Attachments 2”). A specially appointed Commission will assess incoming student’s curricula.

Access to Masters’ degrees courses is allowed also to graduates proving a high preparation and/or a strong motivation, even though their educational background does not strictly meet the requirements set herewith and listed in the attachment. However, the admission is subject to approval by a specially appointed Commission which will assess the candidate’s prospect of previous academic career. Candidates falling into such category may be interviewed by the Commission to evaluate their motivation and suitability to the chosen Master’s course. The Commission will issue a report highlighting the candidate’s weaknesses and consequently the constraints in the formulation of the study plan, listing specific exams (not exceeding a total amount of 12 credits) to be included in the study plan of 120 credits.

In case the preparation is considered not suitable for the chosen master degree course, the Commission will specify the exams the candidate needs to pass with enrolment to single courses, prior to the actual confirmation of his/her enrolment to the master degree course. Credits related to these exams must be earned within the deadline of March 1st, 2018.

Please note: that students who previously gained a positive evaluation of their curricular requirements may directly apply for enrollment without a further evaluation for the current academic year.

4.1 EVALUATION PROCEDURE

Those who are subject to the evaluation of their curriculum (see paragraph above) must submit their application before September 2, 2017 – the application forms are enclosed in this announcement: n.2 (Declaration of curricular requirements possession) and n.3 (application for the evaluation of curricular requirements).

How to submit an application:
- hand delivery to the Registrar Office (Ufficio Protocollo), via Mentana, 4 – 27100 Pavia;
- postal delivery by registered mail (date as printed in the recipient post office stamp to be considered for deadline accomplishment);
- Foreign students residing abroad can send their application via email following the instructions in this link: http://eecs.unipv.it/application/requirements/point 5

Delayed applications may entail a delayed issue of the Commission’s report, and may consequently lead to a late ENROLMENT which is subject to an additional fee of € 82.00 (please note that the additional fee for late ENROLMENT is due after October 17th, 2017).

Prior to applying the candidate needs to pay the fee of € 35.00 in any Italian post office filling in a three-piece postal slip with the following information: ccp n. 198200, made payable to University of Pavia - Treasury Department; reason for payment: “Fee for evaluation of curricular requirements - admission to Engineering Master’s degree courses”. This fee is not reimbursable. Residents abroad can pay by bank transfer to UNIVERSITA’ DEGLI STUDI DI PAVIA - SERVIZIO TESORERIA. The bank name is: UBI - Banca; please include all of the following bank codes: IBAN IT 38 H 03111 11300 000000 46566 SWIFT: BLOPIT22776 BIC: POCIITM1XXX.

Students who make bank transfers from outside the EU must pay attention to select, in the field related to the bank operation costs, the OUR code and not the SHARE one. If the SHARE code is selected, the payment will be considered incomplete and it will be necessary to integrate the missing amount with a second bank transfer.

The application must enclose the following attachments:
- Front and back photocopy of a valid identification document;
- proof of payment of the “Fee for evaluation of curricular requirements - admission to Engineering Master’s degree courses”;
- Self-certification of study plan (for students about to graduate) or self-certification of the study qualification achieved, detailing each successful exam and related credits (CFU) and SSD, if applicable;
- Any certification attesting the knowledge of English language;
- Students who have carried out their studies at foreign universities must also hand in:
  - Certificate of the qualification with the list of exams, issued by the foreign University they attended. In case of enrollment, it is necessary to hand in this certificate at the Students’ Desk, translated into Italian and legalized by the Italian diplomatic representation, that will issue a related Declaration of value.
The Student Administrative Office will inform applicants about the result of their assessment within 45 days from the receipt of the application (using email addresses provided by each candidate in the submitted application), eventually identifying indicated weaknesses and consequently the exams to be taken to bridge the preparation gap. Graduated applicants are supposed to pass the requested exams before completing the ENROLMENT, by attending single-standing courses and passing the relevant final exams according to the procedure given by the Student Administrative Office. They will then complete the ENROLMENT not later than 1st March 2018 at the desk of the Student Administrative Office - Faculty of Engineering, via Ferrata, 5 (Pavia).

Applicants not yet graduated will be given the opportunity to add the required supplementary exams to the last approved study plan of their BA career.

Candidates who are admitted to an Engineering Master’s Degree Course that do not have to take the assessment test can be directly enrolled according to instructions under ENROLMENT.
